Number of eLearning Seats

Student Quote

"This course was very well thought out and explained. Professor Arneklev provided us with hand outs that were extremely helpful when learning the material and studying for the exams. The professor gave positive feedback. It was easy to notice that the professor cares about his students' success in his class."

Moving Forward

- Rapidly increase course sections available
- Increase participation in professional development
- Create a DL Student Support Center
- Launch a marketing campaign

Student Quote

"Professor Amento seems to care about her students. She does a fantastic job on her video lectures (much better than the textbook). She actually made calculus enjoyable and understandable."
